Market Report

Thursday, March 10, 2022

Corn is higher, fuel is up $1.00/gal, Ukraine needs help and the U.S. government is on standby. Biden says we are going to have to suck it up. What he does not know, the U.S. cow/calf guy has been in a dehydrating stance for several years. So why not put economic sanctions in before Russia invaded Ukraine. Why not put arms in the hand of the Ukrainians while Russia was flexing its military muscle. I'm sure U.S. military and our U.S. information gathering system knew what was going to take place. So now, we pay at the pump instead of having our own supply of fuel.

More inflation and less for the basic food suppliers.
